WR Stand on Busing Pleases Dr. Young

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Mitchell Young of Tennessee, national president of Freedom Ind., says he is "pleased" with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's stand on busing of students to achieve racial balance in schools.

Rockefeller told about 1,000 persons Saturday on the Capitol steps that he had not and was not recommending busing as a desegregation tool.

"I think the governor took a stand against busing he's never done before," Young said. "He definitely made his stand clear."

Young organized the demonstration to protest what he considers federal intervention in education.

"Freedom of choice is the best method of student placement," Young told the crowd. "It gives the parents and students a chance to make a choice. Those people in Washington are not going to take over our children's minds."

"The scholar heel of the government is education," Young said. "We're going to attack, attack, attack, until we defeat them."

Rockefeller told the group that he planned to meet with other members of the Southern Governor's Conference Tuesday at Washington to discuss the group's stand on busing.

Rockefeller, chairman of the conference, said he supported a resolution adopted last fall by the governor. He quoted the resolution as saying:

"The governors of the Southern Governor's Conference go on record as favoring a quality non-discriminatory education for every child and also urge restraint and good judgment in the use of any 'busing' of public school students from one neighborhood to another to achieve racial integration."

Rockefeller told the crowd that the "responsibility lies with the local school boards."

"The decisions will be made in the local school districts and the responsibility for carrying out those decisions also rests with each individual school board, working within the limits of the law and the various court orders," he said.

"It is not any more appropriate for the state to take a forceful position than it is for the federal government."

Young, who followed the governor to the speaker's stand, said he had asked Rockefeller to include anti-busing legislation in his March 2 call for a special session of the legislature.

However, Robert Faulkner, the governor's executive secretary, said, such legislation is "not in the plans right now."

students to achieve a racial balance unless local elected school officials approve such a plan.

McKeithen said it would do little about integrations efforts in the state but will make the rest of the country aware of Louisiana's problem.

The Georgia Legislature passed a similar law Saturday and it now awaits Gov. Lester Maddox's signature. Bills are pending in the Mississippi Legislature which would do the same thing, and Gov. Albert Brewer has called the Alabama Legislature into special session beginning today to consider a similar measure.

Last Thursday, Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee signed a law stating that there be no racial discrimination in pupil assignment. Two bills which would have, in effect, banned busing did not pass.

The action by the Southern states follows federal court decisions calling for immediate school desegregation and in many instances requiring busing of pupils outside their neighborhoods.

In the Justice Department's first West Coast prosecution to speed up integration, Pasadena was ordered last month by U.S. Dist. Judge Manuel Real to bus nearly half of its 30,662 students to break up de facto segregation.

The state will provide $210,000 for busing when the plan goes into effect next September but the prospect for raising the remaining $820,000 cost is bleak, according to Yvette Lightfoot, intergroup coordinator for the Pasadena school board.

A Day Care Center Set Up in Hope

For over two years, the Hope Junior Auxiliary has been planning the establishment of a Day Care center for disadvantaged children in Hope.

This program will become a reality next month when the Hempstead Child Development Center opens. It will be housed in the old Rosenwald School building behind Hopewell until a more satisfactory location becomes available.

The Hempstead Child Development Center, licensed by the State Welfare Department and meeting all the State and inter-agency requirements will provide all-day care, five days a week, for twenty five children ages 3 to 6, of low income families.

The director, Mrs. Don King, and her aids will utilize recommended pre-school enrichment material and will provide a proper balance between study, rest and play periods. Lunch and two snacks will be served.

The objectives of this project are two-fold: to provide the children of low income families with the educational and cultural stimulation they so badly need before starting school, and to allow the parent or older sibling who has been at home with the children to enhance the family's economic position by obtaining training or completing their education. Family follow-up will be provided through the Court, Welfare Department and Seminars for parents and planned also.

The Center will be sponsored by the Hope Junior Auxiliary and governed by an Advisory Board consisting of:

Mrs. Thomas E. Hays, Jr., Chairman, (Jr. Auxiliary); Will V. Rutherford, Vice Chairman, (Public Schools); Ray Lawrence, Sec.-Treas. (United Fund); Richard Powell, (Service Worker, Welfare Dept.); Mrs. Albert Graves, (Jr. Auxiliary); Dr. Jack Royal, (MD); J.T. Bowden, (Employment Security Div.); Al Graves, (Attorney). Parents of children cared for by the Center will also be represented on the board.

The Junior Auxiliary and the Advisory Board are very grateful to James H. Jones and the Hope Public Schools for the assistance and cooperation for the loan of the building and equipment; also, to J.R. Bennett and Homestead Industries for the gift of two large rugs.

Funds for the operation of the Center come from both private and public sources. It is an agency of the Hempstead County United Fund and in addition will be from the Junior Auxiliary, the Hope District, United Methodist Church Reconciliation Fund and the Board of Christian Education, United Presbyterian Church, USA.

The funds received are to be submitted through the State Welfare Department to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for three-to-one matching. The funds will be used for salaries and for the major required equipment. This leaves many things lacking and it is hoped that individuals, businesses and civic organizations in Hope will assist the Junior Auxiliary in providing the needed items, or funds for them, as well as volunteer service.

The following items are badly needed: used refrigerator, paint, window shades, indoor and outdoor play equipment, first aid equipment, books, records, toys, piano, room dividers, bulletin boards, easels, indoor and outdoor plants, aquarium, 2 air conditioners and volunteer assistants.

Individuals, businesses and civic organizations wishing to donate items are requested to call: Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr. 777-3327 or Mrs. Albert Graves, 777-2308.

Both the Democrats' bill and one proposed by Rep. Robert V. Renney, R-Neb., would require licensing of dangerous drug producers, distributors and dispensers; authorize pre-license inspections, and limit prescriptions for amphetamines to three months and three refills.

An outright prohibition against manufacture of "speed" pills—methamphetamines—for anything except scientific research is incorporated in both bills.

The two bills otherwise are similar to the drug abuse control bill passed last month by the Senate and bills being considered by the House Commerce Committee.

The House crime committee investigates, it does not pass legislation, and the two bills thus will go to the House Commerce Committee.

Agnew Attacks to Continue on Disrupters

ATLANTA (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says he plans to continue to act as a spokesman against "those who seek to destroy our heritage of liberty and our system of justice."

"The everyday law-abiding American who believe in his country needs a strong voice to articulate his dissatisfaction... to penetrate the cacophony of sedition and disinformation emanating from the best publicized clowns in our society and their fans in the Fourth Estate," Agnew said.

The vice president spoke here Saturday to more than 1,000 persons attending a $100-a-plate Republican fund-raising dinner.

"The liberal media have been calling on me to lower my voice to seek accord and unity among all America," Agnew said.

"Nothing would please me more than to see all voices lowered, to see us return to discussion and debate within our institutions," the vice president declared.

"But," he continued, "I want you to know I will not make a unilateral withdrawal and thereby abridge the confidence of the Silent Majority."

"If the hippies and the yuppies and the disrupters of the system in Washington, the disrupters of the systems that Washington and Lincoln as presidents brought forth in this country will shut up and work within our free system of government I will lower my voice," he said.

In the Matter of the Model Student Practice Rule, the Model Student Practice Rule is adopted as set out in Per Curiam Order of this date. Justice Byrd would leave the adoption of the Model Student Practice Rule to the discretion of the trial judges.

Lane Sells Mount Ida Bank Holdings

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP) — A spokesman has said that Harlane Lane of Little Rock has sold controlling interest, which amounts to about 95 per cent, in the Bank of Montgomery County here.

The new owners are R.W. Butler of Hot Springs, Avis Fuller of Lewisville and Jim Tom Butler of Harrisburg.

Butler was elected board chairman following the purchase and said there would be no changes in the managerial operations of the bank.

Lane was a chief officer of Union National Bank in Little Rock before he was ousted, along with Donald Couch who was president, on Oct. 31. Couch later regained control of the bank following a proxy fight.

The federal Grand Jury returned an indictment against Lane for receiving a fee for a loan made by Union while he was still one of the bank's chief officers.

Lane has said that he personally did not receive the $125,000 fee. He said La-Co Inc. received the fee for guaranteeing a loan made by Union.

Lane is one of the principal stockholders in La-Co, a company that he describes as dealing in real estate and car washing equipment.

the Baptist Life Insurance Co. of Buffalo, N.Y. and had arrived Saturday.

The tourists were on a one-day tour of the Holy Land when their bus came under small-arms fire in Hebron's northern outskirts, the announcement said. A helicopter evacuated the wounded to a hospital in Jerusalem while Israeli security forces surrounded the area.

There were 37 American tourists, a guide and a driver on the bus when it came under fire about 3 p.m.—8 a.m. EST.

A spokesman for the Proper Tourist Agency, in charge of the tour, said the Americans all were from the New York area and were on a Christian pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

The leader of the tour was identified only as the Rev. Draper.

His sister, Lucille Draper, was one of the wounded, a Ministry of Tourism spokesman said.

Hebron is a center of Arab agitation on the Israeli-occupied west bank of Jordan.

A tourist bus was ambushed at dusk late last year en route from Beersheva to Hebron and an American passenger was killed.

Israeli army troops swarmed over the Hebron area in a massive search for the ambushers.

Russell's Plan Might Work

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Bill Russell, former Boston Celtic coach, compared school desegregation to the moon program during Symposium '70 at the University of Arkansas here Saturday.

Russell said four men were on the moon only nine years after officials launched the program, but 16 years after the 1954 school desegregation opinion by the Supreme Court, segregation still exists.

The former basketball star, said he did not like the lottery system of drafting men and suggested a system of his own.

Russell suggested that political officials over 40 and those with an income of $15,000 yearly should be drafted.

"You'd be surprised how peaceful this world would be under those conditions," he said.

ROCKY MOUND CLUB MEETS

The Rocky Mound Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Earl Dudley February 19 with the vice-president, Mrs. Floyd Pharris, presiding in the absence of the president. The group sang and had the Thought of the Month, "Do you need proof of God? Does one light a force to see the sun?"

The hostess read from Psalm 136 for the devotion. Mrs. Dudley, the housing leader, had the lesson, "Color," and Mrs. Norman Taylor brought the eye-opener. The club project, Bringing Cheer to the Rest Homes, was discussed and a committee named for it. The meeting was concluded with the Homemakers Prayer, and refreshments were served to 10 members and 2 guests.

YERGER PTA MEETS

Yerger Jr. High PTA met Monday night in the school gymnasium. The president, Mrs. Call Sinyard, read the resignation of the secretary, Mrs. Ester Lee Hicks, and announced the appointment of Mrs. Mary Andrews to fill the vacancy. George Frazier recognized six of Yerger's teachers in this month's "Feature The Teacher" spot. They were: Will Rutherford, Mrs. Edwin Stewart, Mrs. Mary Andrews, Harold Conway, Mrs. Jo Adcock and Johnny McMurry.

The group then heard from Wayne Russell concerning the Mill Tax and following his remarks the PTA voted unanimously to support the Tax.

The meeting was adjourned and parents followed their children's daily schedule.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!
This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

DUE TO LACK OF INTEREST, TOMORROW HAS BEEN CANCELLED

Dear Helen: I'm 29, neither of the "Now" nor "Wax" generation, but I can see why young people rebel and push toward the truth. Too many of their elders are playing ostrich.

Take responsibility. We live in our neat little suburban homes with their high fences and because the smog isn't bad out here, we don't worry about the pall that hangs over the cities. We don't vote at school elections (well, maybe one in five does) and we don't know enough about people running for city council or State Congress—even for national offices to ease an educated vote. We work nine to five and then forget it, and we "get away" on weekends so we won't be bothered with the neighbors. Who cares if there are troubles in the world? "George" will take care of them.

If we get churned up over a "cause," whether it's ecology or population control, we're looked on as some kind of extremist nut. "Somebody will solve these hearings by the subcommittee that have uncovered cases of exorbitant pricing and promotion of unsafe and ineffective drugs.

Both Nelson and Sen. Alan B. B. D-Nev., chairman of the Small Business Committee, denied the subcommittee had been meanwhile, a behind-the-scenes fight among Senate staff aides came to light last week with word the Republican counsel to the subcommittee was planning to take a job with a Wall Street law firm that numbers among its clients the nation's sixth largest drug company. James Duffy, 26, confirmed plans to join Cravath, Swaine & Moore.

But he vigorously denied knowing its clients included drug firm, Squibb Beech-Dupont Corp., or that he got the job because he has defended the industry in hearings.

Frank Cunningham, an aide to Duffy, entered those hearings, but acknowledged he had assigned Duffy to the subcommittee with specific instructions to make sure the industry's side of the story got told. He charged that Duffy, the Democratic chief counsel, runs a third-party hearing and everybody knows it.

problems. . . or maybe they'll just disappear." Sex education in schools? Sure it's a good idea, but we don't want to be called Communists by getting involved in the battle. After all, those other extremist nuts can be dangerous if you rile them! Run for office or the school board or even the presidency of the PTA?—You've gotta be kidding! That glory seeking, power mad "George" is just the type—and really such a bore.

And of course if our neighborhood goes downhill or the "wrong people" move next door, we can always move. After all, isn't that what our forefathers did? When things got unbearable for them in the old country, they didn't stay to make them better. They emigrated to the United States!

Next, take concern for others: Recently a notice was passed around our office, though it didn't get very far. Someone lost it. We were asked to write letters to the President of North Vietnam, requesting better treatment and early release of our U.S. war prisoners.

I tried getting people interested, but was met with blank stares, a "Buzz off, buddy" indifference, or "Why don't you write a letter, and we'll sign it?" I finally did!

We'll rise up to condemn young drug users, but how many would work actively to rehabilitate them? How many of our cocktail party friends do volunteer work—except as a way to get their pictures in the society section? How many have written a letter to their Congressman recently?

I say "we" because I'm, getting that way too—but this letter is evidence the cocoon has not sealed. I will no longer be a part of that "silent majority" which follows but doesn't think; grumbles, then hides; runs instead of fights; and lets George do it. These same people let Hitler do it!

Sure, the establishment-knockers are often wrong but they're often right. It takes us "middle men" to see which is which and work with them to make their good ideas better. Mainly it takes involvement, the courage to speak out, the willingness to ask "What can I do about it?"—and do it. NO LONGER SILENT!

Dear N.E.S. Bravo! May your truth increase!

I think it WILL increase mightily, for the violent sixties shock us out of apathy. We know that tomorrow CAN be cancelled, due to lack of interest. Let's hope we never forget it again.—H

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The television networks provided an assortment of pleasant, relaxing treats over the weekend. There was a Perry Como special and a two-hour broadcast of a delightful film feature, "Born Free."

Como, with a distinguished gleam of silver in his hair and a voice as rich as ever, strolled through a tuxedoed NBC hour Sunday night. It was sparked by the comedy of Flip Wilson and, especially, Bob Hope, who never seems to run out of topical material presented in bright, sly framework.

One particularly amusing bit of film inserted was a series of photographs of Hope from the present through his career to a snapshot taken when he was 9 years old. Como sang Hope's "Thanks for the Memory" with special lyrics honoring Bob. Nancy Sinatra also was along for some songs.

CBS made the movie "Born Free" a family special by broadcasting it early Sunday evening. It is a dramatized account of Joy and George Adamson's real experiences raising an orphaned lion cub they named Elsa.

The warm and gentle film, released four years ago, has strong appeal to children as well as adults. Dick Van Dyke appeared as a boy, and his comments between segments of the movie summarized the story line for the young viewers and also interpreted in simple language the relationship between the animal and the humans. It might become a yearly broadcast, the way "The Wizard of Oz" has.

Weekend special fare also included a rerun on CBS Saturday night of an Andy Griffith special with Don Knotts and Tennessee Ernie Ford as guest stars.

Now that the television networks have pretty well made up their schedules for next season, ABC ought to be announcing its plans this week—all three can be more relaxed about interrupting regular programs for specials. More specials will be turning up from now until rerun time starts at the end of March and early April. Earlier in the season there was pressure to measure the performance of individual series against the competition.

Special programs are important in these days when few series turn out more than 26 programs a year. The specials help fatten and lengthen the season and provide a change of pace. They are also important as advertising vehicles for companies which prefer the solid impact of an hour special to scattering their commercials among various series.

Thinks School Lunch Plan Inadequate

By LAWRENCE L. KNUDSON

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen.

George McGovern, chairman of the Senate hunger committee, is attempting to bolster southern-sponsored school lunch legislation he says is grossly inadequate to feed millions of poor and hungry U.S. children.

The South Dakota Democrat has offered five amendments, expected to come to a vote today, aimed at broadening the base of the program and increasing funds to run it.

McGovern is opposed by the bill's sponsor, Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., and a majority of members of the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Talmadge said Friday the legislation is designed to make lunches available to every school child in America but McGovern contends it favors southern schools and fails to take the feeding program to the truly needy.

One McGovern proposal would establish a national uniform standard of eligibility based on an income of $4,000 a year or less for a family of four. He said it would expand the program to take in up to 9 million children.

McGovern also would change the Talmadge money to make numbers of poor. As it stands, it would allocate some number of children state during the year. McGovern said this day favor the south, which he said has not "flushed" lunch programs most other areas.

McGovern said the Department of Agriculture, which administers the school lunch, now has no idea how many children are eligible for the program or how many are being fed.

He would require states to file an annual school lunch plan and a monthly report on the numbers of children being served.

The South Dakota senator also proposed increasing authorization for the program in President Nixon's budget by $500 million this year, $250 million next year and $300 million in fiscal 1972.

Ouachita Is Victim of Hope Balance

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Editor

It's coming together now. Even without Big Larry Muldrew and his usual 20 points, the Hope Bobcats soaked the powerful Ouachita Warriors 82-77 in a non-conference battle last Saturday night before the home fans at Jones Field House.

Outside shooting by Charles Frazier, David Briggs, and Parker Powell gave Hope its best-balanced offensive performance of the season, as Dudley hit 23 points from the post and played an intimidating defensive game throughout.

In the injured Muldrew's place, 6-3 Lynn Norton wound up with 12 points after scoring 11 with Dudley out in the 69-50 victory over Mena last Tuesday.

Winning two in a row, the Bobcats now stand 11-42 with the final home game tomorrow night against the Texarkana (Ark.) Razorbacks. That will set the stage for that crucial face-off at Fairview on Friday evening to wrap up the regular season before district tournament next week.

Ouachita had whipped Hope earlier by scores of 58-42 and 71-50, and the Warriors are rated as contenders for the state Class A title with a 23-6 record. But the Bobcats were ready. Quickly Norton bottled a free throw, then Dudley went outside and burned the net from 25 feet. Then the 6-6 sophomore center hit four consecutive foul shots in ten seconds and Hope led 7-1 after two minutes.

Dick Phelan got a layup for the Warriors seconds later to cut it to 7-4, but Dudley came back and got two more baskets from outside, showing remarkable touch from the long distance with his height. Still another Dudley tipin made it 13-5 halfway through the quarter, and John had 12 of those 13 points.

Ouachita wasn't ready to give up, though, and got back into it as Neil Phelan opened up a 32-point night with two buckets. Now the Cats only had it 13-11, and with 1:51 left in the period Phelan got some charity throws and a 15-15 tie resulted.

Now the guards took command of the Hope offense, and they did a beautiful job. Junior Charles Frazier nailed four points and Briggs one, but Ouachita cut it to 20-19 at the quarter with two late field goals by Mike Martin and Ray Bollen.

Few expected four quarters as high-scoring as the first, but that is what happened. For the most part, though, the second period was all Ouachita.

In 26 seconds Neil Phelan hit two free throws and the Warriors led for the first time 21-20, a lead they didn't relinquish easily. Frazier and Briggs connected twice and Parker Powell once to keep Hope in tight, and with 2:33 left in the half Ouachita led 32-30.

Now Phelan got four more in a row over 29 seconds, making the score 36-30 and giving Hope Coach John Ross reason to worry. But Frazier, who had 15 points at halftime and Briggs nine, came back with two jumpers from 15 feet between some fine defensive plays and backboard domination by John Dudley.

From 36-34, however, the Warriors jumped back up to 40-35 with a Phelan two-pointer 1:23 before the intermission. But it was the Bobcats' turn to shine, and the job was well done.

Norton hit some free throws, then Briggs and Powell both split the cords from outside for a 41-40 Hope lead. With one second until the buzzer, Charles Frazier hit two more foul shots, and the final 8-0 spurge left the Cats on top 43-30 at intermission.

Ouachita never led it again. They started the third frame with the difference alternating from three to five points, before Lynn

Texarkana Final Game for Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Editor

That last home game is always a big one. And the Hope Bobcats meet that landmark for the 1969-70 campaign tomorrow night, hosting the Texarkana (Ark.) Razorbacks of Class AA-West here in Jones Field House, with a "B" game starting at 6:30 p.m.

After whipping Mena 69-50 and Ouachita 82-77 last week, the Cats seem primed for the final charge. Their season mark is now 11-42, which is not fabulous but still decent compared to 10-36 the two previous years.

Hope should be able to defeat Texarkana, but the schools always seem to make it exciting on the basketball floor. Several years back was the most memorable, as the Bobcats took a 92-90 double overtime win over the Porkers here at Jones Field House.

Forward Larry Muldrew, leading Bobcat scorer and top candidate for post-season honors, remains questionable because of a painful groin injury suffered in practice last Wednesday. Larry missed school and workouts Thursday and Friday, but it is hoped that he can be back in form quickly.

Those Hope "B" Bruins are really coming into their own, also. Playing without their usual high scorers, Lynn Norton and Tommy Webb, the Bruins still crunched a tough Ouachita squad 63-54 in the first game Saturday night.

Now the Bruins sport a season record of 11-4, including a spotless 4-0 mark against 4-AA teams. They play the openers both tomorrow night against Texarkana and Friday night in the finale at Fairview.

San Antonio Crown Won by Cerrudo

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — It was nine years coming, but Ron Cerrudo finally got revenge for a defeat in the California Amateur golf championship.

"I finally caught up with him," Cerrudo laughed after beating Dick Lotz in a duel for the $20,000 top prize in the San Antonio Open golf tournament Sunday.

"It's the first time we've played head to head since he beat me in the finals of that 1961 state amateur at Pebble Beach," Cerrudo said. He had beaten Lotz's brother, John, in the semifinals before the other Lotz knocked him off.

And Dick threatened in the final round Sunday, twice closing to within one stroke before Cerrudo pulled away. Cerrudo had a final round 68, two under par on the soggy, 7,138 yard Pecan Valley Golf Club course, for 273.

Lotz, his long-time friend and playing partner, also had a 68 and took second, five strokes back, at 278.

Rod Funseth, 70, and Miller Barber, 68, shared third at 279. Those four were the only players to break par during the weather-plagued tournament. Sleet, cold and wind hampered play the first three days, and a drizzling rain fell during most of the final round.

Al Gelberger and John Schlee were tied at 282, with Dave Stockton, Orville Moody, Kermit Zarley and Chris Blocker at 283.

Cerrudo started the final round with a four stroke lead over Funseth. Lotz was one more stroke back.

But Cerrudo quickly ran into trouble.

"I was very nervous," he said. "Not so bad that I lost control of myself, but I was choking something awful," he said.

He bogeyed the second hole, missing the green and a three foot putt. Lotz then put on a rush, taking birdies on the next three holes and closing to within one stroke.

"I felt more comfortable when he got close," Cerrudo said. "I thought that I'd have to start playing golf now and quit patting myself around."

Lotz bogeyed the sixth, three-putting, but birdied the eighth when he put his approach shot four feet from the hole. That put him back to one behind. He bogeyed the ninth from a trap. Cerrudo ran in a 20 footer on the 10th, and it wasn't close again.

It was the second victory of his career for Cerrudo. His first came in the Cajun Classic in 1968, his rookie year.

"The money's nice," he said, "but it's winning that's important. It's the feeling of winning, of being a champion."

'Hard Luck' Trophy Goes to Finland

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Soviet Union skated away with the gold, and Finland took the "hard luck" trophy.

Ludmila Titova won the women's crown and Valeri Muratov the men's championship in the first running of the international Sprint ice skating championships on the 400-meter Olympic ice rink in suburban West Allis.

Titova, a 23-year-old economist, rode to the women's crown with first-place finishes in the 500-meters both Saturday and Sunday.

On Sunday, the pretty Russian flashed to a world record 44.58 seconds, slipping two-hundredths of a second off the old mark.

The championships were decided on total points over a two-day span. All competitors skated two 500-meter and two 1,000-meter races.

While Titova used the short races to catapult her to victory, teammate Valeri Muratov was a model of consistency.

The powerful Russian was clocked in 1:21.7 in the fourth and final race to climb past Japan's Keiichi Suzuki in the overall standings. Suzuki, old for a world class competitor at 26, was timed in 1:23.7 in the final 1,000-meter race.

Titova finished with 184.250 points while runner-up Nina Starkevich of the Soviet Union had 185.180. Third was Atje Kuelen-Deelstra of The Netherlands with 186.240.

Hamilton Is Winner of Daytona 500

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Young Pete Hamilton says he felt "like an outsider" when he came south to become a big time race driver two years ago, but agreed today that a $46,400 winner's check puts him into the "in crowd" of stock car racing.

Hamilton, 26, beat old pro David Pearson across the finish line by three car lengths Sunday to win the Daytona 500, second richest auto race in America, and in the process terminated a two-year training program in a sport where heroes are a dime a dozen.

The Dedham, Mass., bachelor joined Richard Petty's Plymouth team a month ago after driving 12 winning cars on NASCAR's circuit for small sports sedans last year.

The Petty family that includes father and patriarch Lee Petty had spent a month coaching their protege how to drive the ultra-fast Daytona International Speedway.

"The first thing they told me," said the slender blond, "was that you have to finish a race before you can win it. I did what they told me and ran as easily as I could so that I wouldn't wear the car out too quickly."

Hamilton, who says he likes his bachelorhood and has no plans to end it soon despite his new-found wealth, led only 14 laps of the 200-lap chase that reached speeds up to 225 miles per hour down Daytona's long backstretch.

But nine of his laps counted the most—the last ones. He overtook the 34-year-old Ford-driving Pearson coming out of the Speedway's east bank with 21 miles to go and easily held off the wily veteran to the finish.

Earlier there had been 23 lead changes among 10 drivers as stock car racing's elite battled bumper to bumper before 103,800 fans in one of the hottest duels seen at Daytona in years.

Pearson led the most laps, 97, and was in front six times. The three-time Grand National champion and $183,700 winner last year, collected $20,105.

For the greying Pearson, however, second place was no stranger. Enroute to the Grand National driving title in 1969, he won 11 races but finished 18 events in second place.

Third through fifth places went to new winged Dodge Daytonas, cars that carry a 20-inch high stabilizer on their rear decks to hold them down at high speed. Hamilton's Plymouth is of similar design.

Bobby Allison finished third for $10,650, fourth place went to Charlie Glotzbach, who led four times for 36 laps, and fifth to Bobby Isaac. A Plymouth driven by Richard Brickhouse came in sixth.

Hamilton's average speed was 149.601 miles per hour held down by six caution flags that consumed more than 100 miles. Hamilton, who came south two years ago and announced he would stay until he "got a ride on the big speedways," was never far behind the leaders at anytime. He took advantage of a quick pit stop to put the knife-nosed edge of his car in front twice during the early going "just to show I could run with anybody."

There was only one serious accident. Buddy Arrington of Martinsville, Va., wrecked his Dodge on the backstretch and was treated for a broken rib.

Engine failure sidelined such pre-race favorites as Petty, Ford's A. J. Foyt, Ford's Cale Yarborough and Donnie Allison. Yarborough had won the pole spot at 194.015 miles per hour, a record lay for Daytona. He led the first 26 laps but was forced out when his engine exploded on the 31st circuit.

UCLA Upset by Oregon, Who Is 1st?

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who will it be?

That's the big question in the college basketball world this week and it will be answered on several fronts.

—In the wake of UCLA's stunning 78-65 loss to Oregon, who will be No. 1 when The Associated Press releases its weekly poll Monday night?

—Who will be chosen when the NCAA and National Invitation Tournaments start sending out their bids Tuesday?

The answer to the first question should come from among UCLA, 21-1; Kentucky, 21-1, and St. Bonaventure, 19-1, who ranked 1-2-3 last week. Other once-beaten teams are Jacksonville, 20-1, and Penn, 23-1 and owner of the nation's longest winning streak at 16.

The NCAA Tournament which needs 10 at-large teams in addition to the 15 conference champions who qualify automatically, is expected to tap Jacksonville and St. Bonaventure in the East, Marquette and Notre Dame in the Midwest, Houston and Dayton in the Midwest and New Mexico State and Utah State in the West.

Western Kentucky became the first to gain the 25-team field when the Hilltoppers whipped Morehead State 98-74 behind Jim McDaniels' 36 points Saturday night and clinched the Ohio Valley Conference championship. Kansas State assured itself of at least a tie in the Big Eight by downing Nebraska 69-62. The Wildcats can win it by beating Colorado on Thursday.

The NIT probably will go for Niagara, St. John's and Louisiana State—as soon as the Tigers are officially eliminated from the Southeastern Conference race—for its 16-team field.

But the talk of the weekend was Oregon's trouncing of UCLA, last major unbeaten team. The Bruins, shooting for their fourth consecutive national championship, were unbeaten in 1966-67, lost to Houston by two points in 1967-68, lost to Southern California by two last year and had reeled off 21 straight wins this season.

Stan Love, the Pacific Eight's leading scorer, and sophomore Rusty Blair each scored 19 points for Oregon and Blair hit five straight shots early in the second half.

"They whipped us on offense and defense," said UCLA's John Wooden. "Not in 10 years can I remember any team of mine shooting as poorly as we did and getting beaten on the boards as badly."

But Wooden also noted that "the pressure is off us now," which might be bad news for UCLA's remaining opponents.

Steve Belko, Oregon's coach, said, "I honestly thought before the start that we had a good chance to beat them if we played our type of game. And... we did just that."

Despite the setback, UCLA has a two-game lead over Oregon in the Pac-8 with four games left.

Kentucky can clinch a tie in the SEC by beating Alabama tonight and can win it all if Louisiana State loses to Tennessee.

In a wild shootout Saturday, LSU's Pete Maravich outscored Kentucky's Dan Issel 64-51 but the Wildcats spoiled Pistol Pete's home finale 121-105. Big Bob Lanier poured in 34 points in St. Bonaventure's 71-61 defeat of Long Island U.

South Carolina ranked fourth, and No. 9 Davidson kept rolling along but both must win NCAA berths via post-season tournaments in the Atlantic Coast and Southern Conferences, respectively. The Gamecocks topped North Carolina 79-62 and Davidson trounced George Washington 91-74.

Jimmy Collins' 30 points led fifth-ranked New Mexico State past West Texas State 87-73. Sixth rated Jacksonville was idle but No. 7 Penn routed Brown 84-56 and set up Friday night's Ivy showdown with Columbia, which must win to prevent Penn's clinching the title.

Florida State, No. 8 ended Georgia Tech's string of upsets 97-80 and 10th-ranked Marquette crushed Detroit 80-60.

In other league races, Iowa defeated Ohio State 97-89 and leads the Big Ten by two games with four left; Rice beat Texas 75-67 for a two-game lead in the Southwest Conference with three to play; Utah moved one-half game in front in the Western Athletic Conference by whipping Wyoming 113-82 while Texas-El Paso lost to Arizona 86-72.

Drake pulled 11 games ahead of Louisville in the Missouri Valley by holding off Tulsa 80-

74 while Cincinnati beat runner-up Louisville 53-52.

Santa Clara and Pacific are tied for the West Coast A.C. lead with four games remaining while Ohio U. can take Mid-American honors if Bowling Green loses to Western Michigan on Wednesday. If not, the Bobcats and Falcons play next Saturday.

Bullets Hit Mark, Knock Off Knicks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Bullets, who had misfired nine straight times against the New York Knicks, finally hit the mark.

The Bullets, with Earl Monroe gunning in 37 points, edged New York 110-104 Sunday to snap a string of nine straight losses to New York, dating back to the 1968-69 National Basketball Association season.

In other NBA action Sunday, Milwaukee blasted Phoenix 144-124 to move to within 5 1/2 games of first-place New York in the East, Detroit edged Atlanta 111-114, Seattle nipped San Francisco 131-127, Cincinnati drubbed Philadelphia 136-116 and Los Angeles whipped Boston 108-96.

Saturday, Atlanta smashed New York 122-106, Milwaukee topped Seattle 140-127, Cincinnati downed Chicago 127-119, Philadelphia shaded Detroit 112-110, San Diego trounced Los Angeles 121-106 and San Francisco took Boston 116-111.

In the American Basketball Association Sunday, Kentucky walloped Miami 151-128, Charlotte edged New York 101-97, Washington outlasted Los Angeles 135-128 and Denver downed New Orleans 113-107.

New York, down 82-70 late in the third quarter shot into a 95-93 lead midway through the final period, but then Baltimore put on a 13-4 spurt to clinch it. Walt Frazier led New York with 30 points.

With Flynn Robinson scoring 25 points, Milwaukee erupted for 84 points in the second half to drub Phoenix. Lew Alcindor poured in 34 points, John McGlocklin 31 and Robinson 28 for the Bucks. Connie Hawkins paced Phoenix with 25.

Detroit blew a 25-point lead but held on to beat Western Division-leading Atlanta on Howie Komives two foul shots with five seconds left. Jim Walker topped Detroit with 24 points, while Joe Caldwell scored 34 for Atlanta.

Seattle fought off a San Francisco rally on the scoring of Bob Rule who got 11 of his 30 points in the fourth quarter. Joe Ellis, who led the San Francisco rally with 18 points in the final period, finished with 34.

Connie Dierking connected on 14 of 22 field goal attempts and 17 of 21 free throws for a career high 45 points in sparking Cincinnati over Philadelphia Archibald Clark and Billy Cunningham each scored 32 points for Philadelphia.

Elgin Baylor, playing the entire 48 minutes, scored 39 points, 14 in the fourth quarter, and grabbed 17 rebounds as Los Angeles moved to within two games of Atlanta by beating Boston. Jerry West did not play for Los Angeles. John Havlicek led Boston with 26 points.

Record Breaker Not Satisfied With Himself

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lee Evans is an Olympic champion, a fiery competitor and is coming off a dazzling world record breaking victory. Yet the 22-year-old speedster still is not satisfied.

The reason: Martin McGrady. McGrady is considered the finest in the world at 600 yards and in two head-to-head confrontations this year, the 23-year-old Washington, D.C., schoolteacher has come out on top of Evans, who did beat McGrady once last year in two meetings.

"I'm the only one that can beat Martin," Evans said after lowering the 500-yard world mark Friday at the San Diego Indoor Games. "I'm the last guy to beat him in a 600-yard race and I know I can run faster than him."

While Evans wiped out Villanova's Larry James' record of 55.4 by nine-tenths seconds, McGrady was equalling the world's best time for 500 meters the same night at the U.S. Olympic Invitational meet in New York. McGrady, who has now taken 26 of his last 28 indoor races—eight in a row this year—tied a 17-year-old standard of 1:02.9 set by Mal Whitfield.

McGrady, who only two weeks ago dropped his own 600-yard mark by five-tenths seconds to 1:08.5 at successive meets in Los Angeles and Louisville, Ky., and Evans, the 400-meter Olympic winner, will face each other Friday night at the Amateur Athletic Union indoor championships in New York.

Evans' record at San Diego was the only world mark shattered but Juris Luzins, former William & Mary race, erased the American record for 1,000 yards with a 2:05.6 clocking. It was just .1 second off the world standard which Australia's Ralph Doubell holds. Tom Von Ruden held the American mark of 2:07.1, set only three weeks ago in New York.

Other winners on the Coast were Gary Power, who whipped

McLain Gets Many Offers From Clubs

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — While Denny McLain remained in limbo, the Detroit Tiger pitching star is getting many job offers—primarily to entertain in nightclubs.

But the 25-year-old righthander said Sunday he can't accept any of them until he is more definite about his future in baseball.

McLain, who plays the organ and also sings, said he had had a lot of other job offers.

"But I'll just wait to find out what's going on because I want to play baseball more than anything else," he said.

McLain had just returned from playing a round of golf but basically he has been living in seclusion since being indefinitely suspended from baseball Thursday by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

Kuhn said the suspension was a result of McLain's "involvement in 1967 bookmaking activities."

He added that Denny would remain suspended at least until an investigation by the commissioner's office of the matter is complete.

McLain has said very little to the press since Thursday, while granting numerous interviews to radio and television sportscasters. McLain said when he appears on television or speaks on radio, what he says can't get twisted around. But, he added, "I don't think any newspaper men have been unfair about this."

Olympic champion Willie Davis, who won the 100-meter dash at the 1960 Rome Olympics, said he was "in good luck" in two years running the 60-yard high hurdles in 7.0, and

Baseball Has Player Troubles

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer.
You can't tell the players without a scorecard. . . or without a summons. . . or without a road map. . . or without a ticker tape. . . or without an adding machine.

Major league baseball players are having trouble putting hits, runs and errors on the spring training scoreboards because major league teams are having trouble putting players on the field.

Item: Star pitcher Denny McLain of the Detroit Tigers suspended for involvement in bookmaking activities.

Item: Tiger infielder Ike Brown gets summons to appear in court in connection with a year-old auto accident.

Item: Tiger shortstop Cesar Gutierrez stranded at his home in Venezuela, unable to get a visa.

Item: Pitcher Vicente Romo finally makes it from Mexico to Winter Haven, Fla., for his first workout with the Boston Red Sox. He was due last Tuesday.

Item: Catcher Tom Satriano given permission to report late to the Red Sox so he can take a CPA examination in California.

Item: Relief pitcher Ron Peranoski has until March 7 to report to the Minnesota Twins while he completes a brokerage training course in New York.

In the wake of McLain's stunning suspension last Thursday, the Tiger camp at Lakeland, Fla., was involved in an incident with a sheriff's representative a day later.

"It was about a car accident my wife had about a year ago," Brown, an off-season resident of Lakeland, explained Sunday.

"The other guy didn't have any insurance, but now we have to go to court about it."

In the case of Gutierrez, the Tigers said they hoped to have the matter cleared up in a day or two. Gutierrez is expected to be the Tigers' starting shortstop.

Romo, who disappeared from the Red Sox for 1½ days while the team was in Chicago last Season, turned up in Miami Saturday night. A club spokesman said the pitcher reported he was stranded and the Red Sox arranged to get him to Winter Haven in time for Sunday's workout.

Romo said he was delayed in Mexico by the illness of his wife and one of his two children.

On the field, players reporting to their teams included Rod Carew of Minnesota, Oakland's Al Downing, Graig Nettles of Cleveland, Montreal's John Bateman, Andy Etchebarren of Baltimore, Washington's Lee Maye and Pete Ward of the New York Yankees.

Elsewhere, Atlanta reliever Cecil Upshaw disclosed he was working on a new delivery — "a squib pitch. . . as i d e a r m, change-up breaking ball" — and Kansas City hurler Jon Warden was ordered to lose nine pounds by Wednesday or pay a $25 fine.

Visitors Are Shocked by Hope B Boys

By BILL MOORE

Saturday night the Hope Bruins made a second-half comeback and shocked the Ouachita Warriors, 63-54 in a thriller. The victory gives the Bruins a fine 10 win and 4 loss record and they take on the Texarkana B-team here Tuesday, in the first of two games.

Ouachita struck first and took an early 3-0 lead, before Roger Newton hit a free throw for Hope with 4:57 left. The Warriors increased their lead to 10-1, before Bill Rowland hit a basket with 2:04 left.

The quarter ended with Ouachita leading 16-7, and it looked like a long night for the Bruins at that point.

With 5:34 left in the second segment, Steve Harris hit a pair of free throws and Newton and Rowland got two points each with 3:38 left, as the Bruins pulled to within five, 20-15.

Ouachita then called time to straighten things out and when play was resumed, hit five straight points.

With 2:34 left Buddy Ingram, who was moved up from the Junior High squad, hit back-to-back baskets, as the Bruins trailed, 27-19.

Rowland, Harris, and James Bradley pulled Hope to within six on shots, and Harris made a fine move with 0:05 left in the half to cut the Warriors lead to

N.Y. Jets To Play Atlanta

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets will meet the Atlanta Falcons in a preseason game at Winston-Salem, N.C., on Aug. 15.

Tim White and Harris hit baskets to pull Hope to within one, and with 3:12 left Ingram hit a free throw to knot the score at 36 all.

The lead changed hands several times but after White's free throw with 1:28 left in the third quarter Hope never trailed again. Harris and Rowland each added a pair of free throws and the Bruins had a 45-40 lead with one quarter to play.

Rowland immediately got a basket but four points by Ouachita, closed the gap to three. That was all, however, as Harris and Rowland sent Hope to a 51-45 margin with 3:58 to go.

Ingram then hit two pairs of free throws for a 55-48 lead and Newton got two baskets. Tommy Frazier hit a basket with 1:04 showing as the score stood at 61-50, and with 13 seconds Frazier again connected on two charity shots to finish the scoring.

The only clothesline you'll ever need.

Dry and sigh. You'll love the flameless electric dryer. Women prefer electric 2 to 1. Why? Because it's perfect for permanent press. It costs less to buy. Operates thriftily. Has fewer moving parts, so maintenance is low. And it's flameless. So you can dry your tears when you wash and dry better electrically. Housewives swear by it. No wonder. Most of the bright new ideas are electric.

Chicago 7 Hopes to Get Out on Bond

CHICAGO (AP) — Lawyers for seven men jailed in the Chicago riot case hope an appeals court will let their clients out on bond this week, possible Wednesday.

Government prosecutors have until 1 p.m. Wednesday to present the U.S. 7th Circuit Court of Appeals with a brief opposing a request for bail for the seven. Defense lawyers put in their bid for bail Saturday.

John Tucker, one of several lawyers not involved in the trial who is working on the appeals, said there was a good chance the court would rule on the bond request Wednesday.

"The precedents are all in our favor," Tucker said. "If it were not for the political climate of the whole thing there would be no question of the issuance of bonds."

Judge Julius J. Hoffman of U.S. District Court refused the men bail, saying that they were dangerous.

A jury convicted five of the defendants of crossing state lines with the intent of inciting riots the week of the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Judge Hoffman sentenced the men to five years in prison and fined them $5,000 each plus the cost of prosecution. In addition, he imposed contempt sentences on all seven defendants ranging from 2½ months to 2½ years.

Defense attorney Leonard I. Weinglass said the appeal of the convictions would cite the jury deliberations.

Weinglass said in a speech at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., that "room-to-room negotiating was carried on" by the jury "until all 12 came to a verdict of guilty" for five defendants.

When the jurors retired to the hotel where they were sequestered, Weinglass said, four who thought all the defendants innocent "returned to one room and the eight returned to another."

He said this resulted in a verdict that "is a complete failure of the deliberating process." On these grounds we intend to predicate our appeal.

In other developments concerning the five-month trial:

— Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said the trial was a disgrace and an attack on the judicial system. "If we can't remedy that some way, we will have to pass a constitutional amendment to say that under certain facts a person would forfeit their right to a trial," he said.

Stennis appeared on CBS "Face the Nation" program.

— Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said the trial may be "making martyrs out of people who do not deserve martyrdom." He said, "There seems now to be a kind of determined effort to downgrade the judicial process of this country and disrupt it."

Humphrey questioned the law under which the defendants were tried, including the one making it a federal crime to cross state lines with the intention of fostering violence. He said he doubted the law "will withstand the test of an appeal to the Supreme Court."

Humphrey spoke on the Metropolitan Radio News program "Profile."

— Dennis Wright, 19, of Childersburg (Quachita County) was killed Saturday when the motorcycle he was driving collided with a car about four miles south of Childersburg.

— James Morris, 21, of Tulsa, Okla., was killed Friday night in a one-car accident on Arkansas 71 about five miles north of Mountainburg.

— Jimmy Wade, 22, and Jimmy McKee, 22, both of Arkadelphia, were killed Friday night in a two-car crash near Hot Springs.

French Premier to Find Finch Wants U.S. Not Too Happy Over Deal With Arabs

By JOHN VINOCUR
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — President Georges Pompidou left for a nine-day tour of the United States today, prepared for demonstrations against his Middle East policies but ready to put those policies in the most favorable light possible in his talks with President Nixon.

Pompidou and his dashing blonde wife, Claude, took off in a light rain.

Heavy security precautions, the threat of unfriendly pickets, and prospects for a sizeable congressional boycott when Pompidou addresses a joint session in Washington Wednesday made for a gloomy mood among the president's aides.

After arriving at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington this afternoon, Pompidou and his wife are to spend tonight at Camp David, the U.S. presidential retreat, before talks begin Tuesday with President Nixon, whom he has never met.

The two presidents are expected to look further down the path of Franco-American reconciliation on which Nixon set out a year ago. U.S. officials have expressed confidence that the White House sessions will be amicable because Nixon will avoid sensitive subjects.

Nixon does not intend to bring up France's relations with the Atlantic Alliance. Although President Charles de Gaulle withdrew French forces from NATO's military structure in 1966, U.S. officials have noted with satisfaction some informal cooperation between French and U.S. naval forces in the Mediterranean since the 1968 invasion of Czechoslovakia, but they do not expect cooperation to go much beyond the present level.

Pompidou will get an extensive briefing on the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks between the United States and the Soviet Union. He and Nixon also are expected to discuss Vietnam, Africa, economic problems, the future of the Common Market, East-West relations with emphasis on West German efforts to normalize relations with the Communist bloc, and narcotics smuggling to the United States via France.

Although the White House intends to do all it can to make visit smooth, it can do little about what happens outside.

Congressional critics of France's Middle East policy are organizing a stay-away movement when Pompidou addresses Congress. Sponsors claim that a third to a half of the House members will join the boycott, but few if any senators are expected to.

Demonstrations are anticipated when Pompidou sets out Thursday on a round-the-country itinerary that will take him to Cape Kennedy, San Francisco, Chicago and New York. Because of its large Jewish population, New York is omitting the usual official welcome.

The adverse U.S. reaction to Pompidou's visit is the result of his government's decision to sell 110 Mirage jet fighters to Libya, an Arab country virtually without an air force. The State Department made known its concern, and there were reports of official American displeasure because France did not make its intentions clear in advance.

Large sectors of American public opinion also remember that France owes the United States millions in debts, that she evicted the United States from NATO bases in France and sought under De Gaulle to undermine the dollar.

Problems are being solved in the realm of social activities for the youth of Hope, and the speaker answered questions concerning that at the end of his prepared talk.

Accompanying herself on the guitar, Mary Jane Henley (Mrs. Paul) sang "Greenleaves" and "Cherry Tree Carol." The two special guests were introduced by C.R. "Dick" Moore, who had arranged the program.

President Benny Coleman had charge of the meeting and expressed appreciation to all who were responsible for the success of Ladies Night the previous week. He welcomed one visiting Rotarian, John T. McFar of Prescott, and two guests, Mrs. Perry Henley and the Rev. Lindell Ballenger of Springdale.

Enemy Captures Laotian Plain, Indicates That Outpost Next Target

By PETER O'LOUGHLIN
Associated Press Writer
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao forces that recaptured the Plain of Jars may now be heading toward Muong Suoi, an important Laotian government position nine miles west of the plain, American sources said today.

The sources reported a "light probing attack" during the night on the mountain outpost of Phou Kout, on the western edge of the plain 100 miles north of the capital and on the route to Muong Suoi.

There was no report of casualties in the attack, and it was not clear whether the North Vietnamese had captured the village or pulled back.

Another unconfirmed report said an enemy force was observed moving from the Plain of Jars in the direction of Gen. Vang Pao's headquarters at Long Cheng, 35 miles to the west. Vang Pao commands a force of about 10,000 Montebian men who are paid and trained by the United States.

The North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao captured Muong Suoi and held it for a short time last summer. T28 bombers from the Laotian Air Force operate from a base there.

Government forces were reported "regrouping" after the loss of the Xiang Khouang airfield Saturday drove them from the Plain of Jars. The situation was still "quite confusing," said Col. Thongphanh Knoksy, the spokesman for the Laotian Defense Ministry.

Thongphanh said the North Vietnamese had used three helicopters and 18 tanks to support some 2,400 ground troops in the successful assault on the Xiang Khouang airfield. He said it was the first time the North Vietnamese had used helicopters in Laos.

The North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao are estimated to have a force of about 20,000 in the area of the Plain of Jars. Opposing them are Vang Pao's 10,000 Montebian men, along with hundreds of American fighter-bombers that fly attack missions from bases in Thailand and South Vietnam and from 7th Fleet carriers in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The U.S. Embassy reported an American helicopter pilot was killed Thursday by sniper fire while ferrying supplies to government forces on the plain. He was J. C. Maerkl of Fort Worth, Tex., who was flying for the CIA's charter airline Air America. The embassy said Maerkl's copilot landed the helicopter safely at a government airstrip.

Maerkl was the second American casualty reported in the battle for the Plain of Jars.

Two southern states have passed laws supporting freedom of choice school desegregation plans, while prohibiting forced busing of pupils. Two other states in the Deep South are considering similar laws.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five amendments to southern-sponsored school lunch legislation were expected to come to a vote today. The measures, proposed by Sen. George McGovern, were aimed at broadening the base of the program and increasing its operational funds. McGovern says the original bill is inadequate to feed millions of poor and hungry U.S. children.

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers have made heavy strikes against the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos for the seventh consecutive day, and ranged to within a mile of the demilitarized zone.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officials and the chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee say mid-1971 is too soon to end the draft. The date, as a goal for having an All-Volunteer Armed Forces, was suggested Saturday by a presidential commission.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Democratic members of the House Select Committee on crime have proposed a bill placing maximum quotas on the manufacture of pop pills. A Republican countermeasure to control the illegal flow of the pills does not include quotas but agrees on other measures to be taken.

Bombers Hit Enemy in Laos Again

By GEORGE EXETER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers made heavy strikes against the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos today for the seventh consecutive day and ranged to within a mile of the demilitarized zone.

Informal sources said about half of the 30,000 tons of bombs dropped by the big bombers so far this month have been on supply depots and infiltration corridors in eastern Laos, to cut down the movement of troops and war materials into South Vietnam.

Informal sources also said about 50 B52s made heavy raids up and down the Ho Chi Minh trail Sunday and today, dropping 1,500 tons of explosives.

The U.S. Command, which reports only B52 strikes flown in South Vietnam, said one five-bomber mission attacked supply depots and staging areas along the coast, a mile below the DMZ.

They were the closest raids to the DMZ reported since Dec. 14. Fifteen miles farther west along the DMZ, North Vietnamese gunners shot down a U.S. Army Cobra helicopter gunship, but the two-man crew was rescued unhurt.

Sources in Saigon said they had indications that North Vietnamese replacements were beginning to arrive in the 3rd Corps area stretching from Saigon 100 miles north to the Cambodian border.

"There has been little activity in the 3rd Corps in the past two weeks," said one source. "We expect an increase in activity in the coming week. We are waiting for the initiation of the enemy's spring campaign. We expect that will be expressed in attacks by fire (rockets and mortars) and harassing actions following the same general pattern observed in January."

On the Vietnam battlefields, allied patrols and reconnaissance teams spotted North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops on the move in various areas and called in bombers, artillery and helicopter gunships to attack them.

Communiques reported 111 enemy soldiers killed and four munitions stockpiles seized in a dozen scattered fights from the Mekong Delta to the DMZ. Allied casualties were put at two Americans and three South Vietnamese killed and six Americans and 25 South Vietnamese wounded.

Home Costs Vary in Sections of U.S. But Are High in All Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — A frame house built for $20,000 in Charleston, S.C., would cost you $40,290 to duplicate in Fairbanks, Alaska.

A building cost index published by the Bockel Division of the American Appraisal Co. of Milwaukee, Wis., for late 1969, pinpoints those as the low-cost and high-cost areas for construction among 99 U.S. cities and metropolitan areas surveyed.

On a national average, the Bockel Index showed the $20,000 Charleston house would cost $25,922. In all cases, the price is solely for construction and does not include land, mortgage, closing or other costs which may vary greatly from city to city without relation to construction costs.

Here is what the Charleston frame house would cost in 20 other selected cities:

Richmond, Va. $21,818
Birmingham, Ala. $22,106
Portland, Maine $23,290
New Orleans, La. $23,657
Louisville, Ky. $24,789
Miami, Fla. $24,946
Washington, D.C. $24,953
Kansas City, Mo. $25,410
Denver, Colo. $25,417
Phoenix, Ariz. $25,430
Omaha, Neb. $25,882
Seattle, Wash. $25,927
Minneapolis, Minn. $26,490
Philadelphia, Pa. $26,647
Chicago, Ill. $26,694
Newark, N.J. $26,656
San Diego, Calif. $30,423
Cleveland, Ohio $30,482
San Francisco, Calif. $31,202

Recreation Topic of Club Meeting

Paul Henley, the City of Hope Parks and Recreation Director, spoke at the Hope Rotary Club luncheon meeting last Friday at the Town and Country. He explained the recreation program for the young people of Hope and the rules made by the board of directors governing the activities.

Problems are being solved in the realm of social activities for the youth of Hope, and the speaker answered questions concerning that at the end of his prepared talk.

Accompanying herself on the guitar, Mary Jane Henley (Mrs. Paul) sang "Greenleaves" and "Cherry Tree Carol." The two special guests were introduced by C.R. "Dick" Moore, who had arranged the program.

President Benny Coleman had charge of the meeting and expressed appreciation to all who were responsible for the success of Ladies Night the previous week. He welcomed one visiting Rotarian, John T. McFar of Prescott, and two guests, Mrs. Perry Henley and the Rev. Lindell Ballenger of Springdale.
